(64) expressions referring to "writing" shall be construed as including "Writing", references to printing, lithography, photography, and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form: and

(65) "year" shall mean a year reckoned according to the British calendar.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, every Act, unless the contrary is expressed therein, shall extend to the whole of the Union of Burma and shall apply to all persons in the territory to which it extends:

Provided that this section shall not of itself operate to extend any existing law to any area in which it is not already in force.

4. (1) Every Act shall be promulgated by the President of the Union by publication under his direction in the Gazette. Every Act shall come into operation on the date of such promulgation unless the contrary intention is expressed.

(2) Unless the contrary is expressed, an Act shall be construed as coming into operation immediately on the expiration of the day preceding its commencement.

5. Where any Act repeals any enactment, then unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not—

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid;

and any such investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture, or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed.

1 Inserted by the Union of Burma (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1948
2 Substituted by the same Order.

Effect of repeal of amending enactment.

5-A. Where any Act, Regulation or Ordinance repeals any enactment by which the text of any other enactment was amended by the express omission, insertion or substitution of any matter then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not affect the continuance of any such amendment made by the enactment so repealed and in operation at the time of such repeal.

Revival of repealed enactments.

6. In any Act it shall be necessary, for the purpose of reviving, either wholly or partially, any enactment wholly or partially repealed, expressly to state that purpose.

Construction of references to repealed enactments.

7. Where any Act repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provision of a former enactment, then references in any other enactment or in any instrument to the provision so repealed shall, unless a different intention appears, be construed as references to the provision so re-enacted.

Commencement and termination of time.

8. In any Act it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of excluding the first in a series of days or any other period of time, to use the word " from "; and for the purpose of including the last in a series of days or any other period of time, to use the word " to ".

Computation of time.

9. Where by any Act any act or proceeding is directed or allowed to be done, or taken in any Court or office on a certain day or within a prescribed period, then, if the Court or office is closed on that day or the last day of the prescribed period the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards on which the Court or office is open:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any act or proceeding to which the Limitation Act applies.

Measurement of distances.

10. In the measurement of any distance for the purpose of any Act, that distance shall, unless a different intention appears, be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane.

Duty to be taken pro rata in enactments.

11. Where, by any enactment, any duty of customs or excise or in the nature thereof is leviable on any given quantity by weight, measure, or value of any goods or merchandise, then a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

Gender and number.

12. In all Acts, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) words importing the masculine gender shall be taken to include females ; and

(2) words in the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

Powers and Functionaries.

13. Where, by an Act of the Parliament or any existing law as defined in section 222 of the Constitution, any power is conferred, or any duty imposed, on the President of the Union, then that power shall be exercisable, or that duty shall be performable, in his name by the Government.

14. Where, by any Act, any power is conferred or any duty imposed then that power may be exercised and that duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

1 Inserted by Act II, 1945.

9 Inserted by Act XI, 1950.
14. References in any Act to the making of appointments by the President of the Union to any civil service or civil post under the Government shall be construed as references to the making of those appointments by the President of the Union or by some person directed by him to make appointments of that class.

15. Where, by any Act, a power to appoint any person to fill any office or execute any function is conferred, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any such appointment may be made either by name or by virtue of office and either temporarily or permanently.

16. Where, by any Act, a power to make any appointment is conferred, then, unless a different intention appears, the authority having power to make the appointment shall also have power to suspend or dismiss any person appointed by it in exercise of that power.

17. In any Act it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of indicating the application of a law to every person or number of persons for the time being executing the functions of an office, to mention the official title of the officer at present executing the functions, or that of the officer by whom the functions are commonly executed.

18. In any Act it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of indicating the relation of a law to the successors of any functionaries or of corporations having perpetual succession, to express its relation to the functionaries or corporations.

19. In any Act it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of expressing that a law relative to the chief or superior of an office shall apply to the deputies or subordinates lawfully performing the duties of that office in the place of their superior, to prescribe the duty of the superior.

PROVISIONS AS TO ORDERS, RULES, ETC., MADE UNDER ENACTMENTS.

20. Where by any Act a power to issue any notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law is conferred, the expressions used in the notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law shall, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, have the same respective meanings as in the Act conferring the power.

21. Where by any Act a power to issue notifications, orders, rules, or bye-laws is conferred, then that power includes a power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like sanction and conditions (if any), to add to, amend, vary or rescind any notifications, orders, rules, or bye-laws so issued.

22. Where, by any Act which is not to come into force immediately on the passing thereof, a power is conferred to make rules or bye-laws, or to issue orders with respect to the application of the Act or with respect to the establishment of any Court or office or the appointment of any Judge or officer thereunder, or with respect to the person by whom, or the time when, or the place where, or the manner in which, or the fees for which, anything is to be done under the Act, then that power may be exercised at any time after the passing of the Act, but rules, bye-laws, or orders so made or issued shall not take effect till the commencement of the Act.
23. Where by any Act a power to make rules or bye-laws is expressed to be given subject to the condition of the rules or bye-laws being made after previous publication, then the following provisions shall apply, namely—

(1) the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws shall, before making them, publish a draft of the proposed rules or bye-laws for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby;

(2) the publication shall be made in such manner as that authority deems to be sufficient, or, if the condition with respect to previous publication so requires, in such manner as the President of the Union prescribes;

(3) there shall be published with the draft a notice specifying a date on or after which the draft will be taken into consideration;

(4) the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws, and, where the rules or bye-laws are to be made with the sanction, approval, or concurrence of another authority, that authority also, shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received by the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified;

(5) the publication in the Gazette of a rule or bye-law purporting to have been made in exercise of a power to make rules or bye-laws after previous publication shall be conclusive proof that the rule or bye-law has been duly made.

24. Where any enactment is repealed and re-enacted by an enactment, with or without modification, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law made or issued under the repealed enactment shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions re-enacted, continue in force, and be deemed to have been made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted, unless and until it is superseded by any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

25. Sections 63 to 70 of the Penal Code and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in relation to the issue and the execution of warrants for the levy of fines shall apply to all fines imposed under any Act, rule, or bye-law, unless the Act, rule, or bye-law contains an express provision to the contrary.

26. Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under two or more enactments, then the offender shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those enactments, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.

27. Where any Act authorizes or requires any document to be served by post, whether the expression "serve" or either of the expressions "give" or "send" or any other expression is used, then, unless a different intention appears, the service shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying, and posting by registered post a letter containing the document, and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

28. (1) In any Act, and in any rule, bye-law, instrument, or document made under, or with reference to, any Act, any enactment may be cited by reference to the title conferred thereon [(by the Burma Laws (Adaptation) Act, 1940) or by the \[1\] Substituted by Act 11, 145.

Legislative authority and any provision in an enactment may be cited by reference to the section or sub-section of the enactment in which the provision is contained.

(2) A description or citation of a portion of any enactment shall, unless a different intention appears, be construed as including the word, section or other part mentioned or referred to as forming the beginning and as forming the end of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

THE BURMA LAWS ACT.

[INDIA ACT XIII, 1898.] (4th November, 1898.)

1—4. * * *

5. The President of the Union may, for administrative including revenue purposes,—
(a) divide Upper Burma into divisions and each of those divisions into districts, and vary the limits of those divisions and districts, and
(b) divide each of those districts into sub-divisions, each of those sub-divisions into townships and each of those townships into circles, and vary the limits of these sub-divisions, townships and circles.

6. For the purpose of facilitating the application of any enactment for the time being in force in any part of Upper Burma, any Court may construe the enactment of enactments in force in Upper Burma.

7—12. * * *

13. (1) Where in any suit or other proceeding in the Union of Burma it is necessary for the Court to decide any question regarding succession, inheritance, marriage or caste, or any religious usage or institution,—

(a) the Buddhist law in cases where the parties are Buddhists,
(b) the Muhammadan law in cases where the parties are Muhammadans, and
(c) the Hindu law in cases where the parties are Hindus, shall form the rule of decision, except in so far as such law has by enactment been altered or abolished, or is opposed to any custom having the force of law.

(2) * * *

(3) In cases not provided for by sub-section (1), or by any other enactment for the time being in force, the decision shall be according to justice, equity and good conscience.

14. (1) The President of the Union may, by notification in the Gazette, transfer any portion of Upper Burma to Lower Burma or any portion of Lower Burma to Upper Burma, with effect from a date to be specified in the notification, and on and with effect from that date, the portion so transferred shall form part of Lower Burma or Upper Burma, as the case may be.

(2) * * *

1 Deleted by Act II, 1945.
