THE FOREIGN RELATIONS ACT.

[INDIA ACT XII, 1932.] (8th April, 1932.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide against the publication of statements likely to prejudice the maintenance of friendly relations between the Government and the Governments of certain foreign States ; it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. * * * *

¹ Omitted by the Union of Burma (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1948.

Power of President to prosecute in certain cases of defamation.

2. Where an offence falling under Chapter XXI of the Penal Code is committed against a Ruler of a State¹ [adjoining Burma] or against the consort or son or principal Minister of such Ruler, the President of the Union may make, or authorize any person to make, a complaint in writing of such offence, and, notwithstanding anything contained in section 198 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, any Court competent in other respects to take cognizance of such offence may take cognizance thereof on such complaint.

Power to forfeit certain publications or to detain them in the course of transmission through post.

3. The provisions of sections 99A to 99G of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and of sections 27B to 27D of the Burma Post Office Act, shall apply in the case of any book, newspaper or other document containing matter which is defamatory of a Ruler of a State¹ [adjoining Burma] or of the consort or son or principal Minister of such Ruler and tends to prejudice the maintenance of friendly relations between the Government and the Government of such State, in like manner as they apply in the case of a book, newspaper or document containing seditious matter within the meaning of those sections.

Proof of status of persons defamed.

4. Where, in any trial of an offence upon a complaint under section 2, or in any proceeding before the High Court arising out of section 3, there is a question whether any person is a Ruler of any State, or is the consort or son or principal Minister of such Ruler, a certificate of the President of the Union that such person is such Ruler, consort, son or principal Minister shall be conclusive proof of that fact.

THE FOREIGN RECRUITING ACT.

[INDIA ACT IV, 1874.] (24th February, 1874.)

1. * * * * *

"Foreign State" defined.

2. In this Act—

"Foreign State" includes any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in or over any country, colony, province or people beyond the limits of the Union of Burma.

Power to prohibit or permit recruiting.

3. If any person is, within the limits of the Union of Burma, obtaining or attempting to obtain recruits for the service of any Foreign State in any capacity, the President of the Union may either prohibit such person from so doing, or permit him to do so subject to any conditions which the President of the Union thinks fit to impose.

Power to impose conditions.

4. The President of the Union may, from time to time, by general order notified in the Gazette, either prohibit recruiting for the service of any Foreign State, or impose upon such recruiting any conditions which he thinks fit.

Power to rescind or vary orders.

5. The President of the Union may rescind or vary any order made under this Act in such manner as he thinks fit.

¹ Substituted for the words "outside India and Burma but adjoining India or Burma" by the Union of Burma (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1948.
